

A large group photograph of participants at the 2019 Arab League Summit. The image shows a dense crowd of men and women, many in formal business suits, standing on a wide set of stairs. Some individuals are wearing traditional Arab headdresses like ghutras and agal. The group is arranged in many rows, filling the frame. The background shows the modern architecture of the summit venue. In the bottom left corner, there are two small circular icons: a yellow one with a left-pointing arrow and a blue one with an upward-pointing arrow.
